But science has remedied that with the Hotpoint electric range. The oven is draftless and moisture is always under control. The "Chef's Brain" (automatic timer clock) cooks entire meals while you're away. Come in today and learn the marvels of this newer, better, cleaner way to cook.

Letters from Our Readers

PENSION STORY DENIED. As compared with the Veterans' Administration, the United States War Department is in a position to answer the recently published report predicting a demand for a pension for World War veterans from the Veterans' Administration, and without foundation in fact, and without foundation in fact.

There is no valid reason to suppose that the Veterans' Administration is in a position to answer the recently published report predicting a demand for a pension for World War veterans from the Veterans' Administration, and without foundation in fact, and without foundation in fact.

With the exception of the issue involved in cash payment of World War veterans' adjusted service certificates, every piece of legislation ever supported by the Veterans' Administration of the United States has been confined strictly to the solution of the problems of our disabled veterans and their dependents.

Permit me to point out that the so-called bonus issue has been only one phase of our general program for the past several years. We have recommended a uniform pension system for America's disabled veterans, and the widows and orphans of those who are deceased—a pension system that will give due consideration to the length and type of service rendered by the individual veteran.

We demand the elimination of discrimination that exists under present legislation and favor equal consideration for the disabled veterans of all wars.

Certain anti-veteran groups are making a deliberate effort to confuse the public mind on this question. They persist in referring to a "general World War pension" designed to convey the impression that pensions will be asked for able-bodied as well as disabled World War veterans.

I denounce this insinuation as a malicious effort to discredit veteran organizations and veterans who are sincerely devoting their time and efforts to the cause of America's disabled.

James E. Van Zandt, Commander-in-Chief, Washington, D. C.

SITUATION ANALYZED. Editor of The Star: Listening to the recent radio speeches of Alfred E. Smith and Senator Joseph R. Robinson, it appears that the senator figures that Smith swallow his own words and that the American Liberty League representing nothing else but money provide the main obstacles for keeping down criticism of some of the new deal policies.

But let us assume for example that the senator is right that Smith did come out and urge the support of the NRA and Roosevelt has put over a lot of his platform promises he made in his 1928 campaign. The latter came to naught through Smith not being elected, but Roosevelt was elected and it is well known that Smith did come out for the support of the NRA, at the same time he was always critical of it.

Regarding the senator's stand against the American Liberty League and Smith I still believe the senator supported the President on one vital issue when the senate turned him down, which I believe would have given confidence to private capital and enterprise to invest through clearing up our international channels of trade. Or in other words I have lot of confidence in the senator regardless of different views on some subjects.

Arthur A. Craven.

SCHOOL WILL CELEBRATE HALF CENTURY TONIGHT

Greenwood School Anniversary Program To Be Presented at 7:30 and 9 P. M.; Dr. F. C. Mann To Preside

The Greenwood school will be open to pupils "alumni" and principals for a homecoming which the Parent-Teacher association has arranged to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of the school district.

The anniversary program will start promptly at 7:30 and will be repeated at 9 for the pleasure of those unable to be present earlier in the evening.

Hundreds of persons are expected to find their way to the school tonight, to visit the rooms in which they learned the "three R's" to see the display pictures of teachers, principals and class groups of years ago and to join in an evening of reminiscence.

A small admission will be charged, 10 cents for adults and five cents for children the money to go to complete paying for the school radio and installing a school broadcasting system.

Dr. Mann To Preside
Dr. Frank R. Mann, Marion dentist who went to school at Greenwood will preside as master of ceremonies during the program. He will be introduced by Mrs. W. E. Orrell, president of the Parent-Teacher association.

After a song "Homing" sung by William Dowler, there will be living pictures representing former Greenwood pupils and faculty members. Mrs. C. L. Rutherford will lead the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

Old pictures gathered together in the last week will be projected on a screen and as they are shown

Miss Louise Cunningham and Miss Clara Kowalski, former teachers, will comment. Miss Kowalski was the first first-grade teacher at the school and taught until she retired three years ago.

The class of '21 last eighth grade group to leave the school will be represented by Alfred Exton, and Misses Virginia Andrews, Virginia Fetter, Margaret Gruber, Mary Hogan, Jane Koons, Jane McClure, Helen Lin, Helen Muntzinger and Jean Williams. Exton will be master of ceremonies. The chorus of girls will sing the class song written by Miss Margaret Jean Burns and Miss Williams will read the class poem. Since 1931 the school has had only the first six grades.

Principal On Program
Mrs. Nellie Trev, principal since 1934 will read "Greenwood's Future" Pupil in Service, an account of the activities of some of the former pupils since they have entered business and professional life.

Certificates will be awarded to the largest family to have gone through the grades to the oldest pupil present and for the largest family of Greenwood pupils present.

The program will close with the singing of "Home Sweet Home" led by Mr. Rutherford. A souvenir will be given each person who attends. One room will be given over to concession stands at which refreshments will be sold.

Among the former pupils present will be members of the family of the late James A. Knapp whose seven children and six grandchildren attended the school. Six of the seven children are living and the seventh, Major George R. Knapp, is dead. The living are Mrs. Mary Hughes of South State street, Mrs. Lydia Guthrie of South Prospect street, Mrs. Rosetta Elliott of Cleveland, Will Knapp of Zanesville, Frank M. Knapp of Bradford street and Wallace Knapp of South Bend. The grandchildren are Mary and John Guthrie and Jean Flett, Marjory Ann and Peggy Knapp.

MARYSVILLE FACES SHORTAGE OF COAL

MARYSVILLE, Jan. 21—Runners of a coal shortage in the city and county were verified yesterday by coal dealers. The shortage, while not alarming, is attributed to the unusual cold weather conditions, and the fact that some railroads are behind on coal movements due to adverse weather.

DAVEY SEES VICTORY; HITS BACK AT FOES

Says He's Been "Making Hay and Stacking It" and Race Is Now "Two-Thirds Won."

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 21.—Gov. Martin L. Davey declared today he would be re-elected and that his campaign now was two-thirds over.

His campaign for reelection started the day after I was elected and it now is two-thirds over," the governor said.

"While my enemies have been criticizing and abusing me I have been making hay and stacking it."

His declarations were in response to questions concerning the type and extent of the campaign he expected to make.

Spiking reports that he might withdraw as a candidate after the primary, Davey said:

"In view of what I've gone through, I'll fight this out if I die the day after election."

Emphatically asserting belief that he would be re-elected, he declared, "we've got the assets and I don't mean maybe."

The "assets," he said, are good will of voters whom interests, he contended, he has always looked out for.

Probably his most effective campaign, he said, is through letters to individual voters thanking them for some favor or announcing a favor bestowed.

Search Reveals the Extinction of Red Flannels

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—They're called red flannels. They're scarce. They are for wear and tear.

Someone got curious about them in Columbus, O., yesterday and learned of their near-extinction.

And from there the search spread, and if there were none in Columbus, it was not long before they were found in Ohio.

From Maine to California, from Paul Bunyan's famed north woods south to the Arkansas backwoods, went the question.

Back came the almost invariable answer:

"No red flannels any more."

Was it possible that not in all the far-flung possessions of the United States could one find red flannels? Not even in Alaska?

"No," responded Volney M. Rickmond, Jr., president of Northern Commercial Co., an Alaskan trading firm. "I haven't even seen a pair in 20 years."

Rickmond said the record could of the present winter failed to produce any demand for red flannels, and even if there had been a demand there was no supply.

"Haven't even heard of them in years," answered the Utah Woolen Mills, pioneer flannel manufacturers for the northwest. However, they qualified, there have been a few recent calls for heavy gray and, yes, black underwear.

Congressmen and senators were noted unsuccessfully in Washington.

As for the fire department—"red flannels disappeared about the same time as the horse," replied Washington's fire chief, Charles Schrom.

BRICKER LAUNCHES GUBERNATORIAL DRIVE

Says "There Must Be No Turning Back"; Denounces Growth of Bureaucracy.

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI, Jan. 21.—Gov. Bricker, in the opinion of Attorney General John W. Bricker, is "meant for a blessing; it must not become a burden."

Speaking before a joint meeting of the Hamilton county and Young Republican clubs, Bricker opened his southwestern Ohio campaign for the Republican nomination for governor last night, asserting "there must be no turning back" in government.

"But," he added, "we must limit the growth of the government to those instances when new commissions and bureaus are absolutely necessary to the entire public, rather than to serve any group or class."

Bricker said "it required 40 additional pages in state reports to list activities of commissions and bureaus created in the last three years. There is a growing tendency among public officials to reach out and regulate more of their neighbors' business."

Former Gov. Myers T. Cooper predicted Republican victories at the coming election.

The occasion, annual observance of McKinley day, was marked also by attendance of State Auditor Joseph T. Tracy.

SIT-DOWN STRIKE HALTED AT AKRON

Union Men Reinstated After Dispute Ends; Workers To Get Half Their Pay.

By The Associated Press
AKRON, Jan. 21.—Union workers, after 58 hours of sitting quietly by their idle machines in a Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. plant, resumed operations today, receiving half-time pay for the hours they spent playing checkers, reading and chatting.

S. H. Dalrymple, president of the United Rubber Workers of America, hailed the outcome as "victory for us showing how we can win by peaceful methods."

A group of 250 unionists in the plant voted at midnight to accept a company plan and end the "sit-down" protest which began late Tuesday after the company had suspended Clayton Dicks, a union man, after a fist fight with a non-union worker.

Dicks will receive half-time pay also, under the company offer, and he will return to work Monday, said Dalrymple. Dicks' suspension was to have ended tonight, but the company decided the night shift would not work to-night.

Nearly 2,000 workers had been affected directly or indirectly by the tie-up of production which began late Tuesday. The protest was unmarked by violence. The union workers relieved each other at the idle machines at their customary times. The "sit-down" did not spread to other Firestone plants here.

Dicks will receive half-time pay also, under the company offer, and he will return to work Monday, said Dalrymple. Dicks' suspension was to have ended tonight, but the company decided the night shift would not work to-night.

Nearly 2,000 workers had been affected directly or indirectly by the tie-up of production which began late Tuesday. The protest was unmarked by violence. The union workers relieved each other at the idle machines at their customary times. The "sit-down" did not spread to other Firestone plants here.

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR NATURAL "BULK"

Needed to Correct Constipation*

Most people recognize the seriousness of constipation. But too often they dose themselves with strong cathartics that often actually lead to chronic constipation.

The natural way to check common constipation is to correct the condition which causes it—usually, insufficient "bulk" in meals.

How can you get "bulk"? Fruits and vegetables have some. Bran has more. The most popular product of this kind is Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle in action. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

This delicious cereal is a wholesome food. Serve ALL-BRAN regularly for regularity, with milk or cream—or use in cooking.

Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily will usually correct constipation due to insufficient "bulk." If not relieved, see your doctor.

ALL-BRAN gives you gentle internal exercise. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

SOME TOWNS FEAR SHORTAGE OF COAL

Iowa Governor Asks Roosevelt To Urge Miners To Increase Their Hours.

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, Jan. 31—Widespread, but scattered, reports of imminent coal shortages emphasized today the severity of the sub-zero wave.

In Iowa, Gov. Clyde Herlick telephoned an appeal to President Roosevelt for aid in obtaining United Mine Workers Union approval of a lengthened work week. The governor was informed by a committee of operators that if Iowa miners would labor Saturday for relief agencies, the prospect of serious suffering from lack of fuel would be averted.

Dispatch from Birmingham said short supplies of coal had been exhausted and that several Alabama and Mississippi cities faced a similar plight. Southern operators sought a six-day emergency week. The wintry blast last 7 inches of snow on Birmingham and on Atlanta.

In St. Louis, dealers appropriated supplies on hand, delivering one ton where five were ordered. Temperature there today was 2 below.

A slight break in the nation's cold spell was promised for today.

Miami, with a maximum of 70, got credit for being the nation's warmest spot. Los Angeles had a low of 52 Thursday but the thermometer rose to 62 there.

Navigation along the northern Atlantic coast was slowed by ice floes.

Fresh Produce Holds Up Well Despite Cold Weather

Despite the cold weather in the north and west, the markets for fresh produce are holding up well. The fruit situation was described as good, with Florida oranges continuing in nice quality, and improvement in flavor seen in California. California pascal celery is selling at 15 and 20 cents a large bunch, and broccoli from the same state is way down in price for this time of year, dealers getting only 25 cents for two pounds.

Holbrook rhubarb is plentiful and going at 10 cents a pound. California grapes also are on the market in good quality and quantity.

Apples are from the storage houses and described as "real nice" considering the season. While much produce has been damaged by heavy southern frosts and southwestern "northerly" winds, the market is reasonably well supplied.

O. contests both at home and on the road were ordered early this week and were expected for delivery in time for the Harding team to don them tonight.

Par Golf, Once Good Enough To Win Tourneys, Is Only Fair Now

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Old man par has taken a 50-stroke lacing from the winners alone in the 11 open golf tournaments this winter. It wasn't so long ago that par golf won tournaments. Now the pace is so fast that the professional par-shooters generally wind up making no more than caddy fees. The majority of the money-winners this winter have whipped par, but considering only the winners, perfect figures have been bettered by a half-hundred blows. This shows that a professional has had to shoot an average of nearly five shots better than par to win the top prize.

Jimmy Hines, the long-hitting New Yorker who developed a fine putting touch this winter, handed par its worst shelling. He shot the four rounds of the Riverdale, Cal. open tourney in 274, an even dozen blows better than perfect figures for the layout. Johnny Revolta, the Professional Golfers' association champion and leading money winner of 1938, looped across another key punch by winning the Sarasota, Fla. event in 274, 10 below par.

Wills Klein handed the wobbly old gentleman his next most humiliating setback, winning the Miami open in 272, eight under par. Horton Smith was five under in winning the Pasadena open with 279, and three under in taking top money in the Miami Biltmore with 281.

Bill Mehlhorn and Wiffy Cox were two under when they tied for first after 72 holes in the Sacramento open at 286, while Bobby Cruickshank and Revolta were four under finishing the Orlando, Fla. tourney deadlocked at 280. Cox and Cruickshank won first prizes in playoffs.

Leo Mallory captured the Nassau British Colonial open with 271, one better than par, while Denny Shute was six under in winning the 36-hole Tropic open at Miami with 281.

TEN SECOND SACKERS IN MAJOR LEAGUES SURE OF 1936 JOBS

Standout Men Important in
"Keystone" Spot, Survey of Teams Shows.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—It isn't just a happy coincidence that the roster of a major league championship baseball club generally includes a standout second sacker.

Run through a long list—including Johnny Evers, Eddie Collins, Larry Doyle, Frankie Frisch, Larry Lajoie and Rogers Hornsby—and you will find they helped prove the value of being well fortified at the "keystone" spot.

It's significant, therefore, that the best two second basemen in the game today—Charlie Gehringer of the Detroit Tigers and Billy Herman of the Chicago Cubs—are all members of championship outfits.

Gehringer was out-hit last season by Buddy Myers, second sacker of the Washington Senators, but the Tiger ace again topped the league list in fielding and is rated the better all-around man.

Gehringer has a lifetime batting mark of .327 for 12 years as compared to .303 for Meyer in 11 seasons. Herman, a .340 hitter who did not miss a game with the Cubs last season, has succeeded Frankie Frisch, the Cardinal playing pilot, as king of the older circuit's keystone workers.

All told, 10 second basemen of the 1935 season appear sure of their jobs in the coming campaign. The likely hold-overs, in addition to Gehringer, Meyer, Herman and Frisch, are Tony Lazzeri of the Yankees, Tony Carty of the Browns, Rabbit Warfield of the Athletics, Floyd (Pop) Young of the Pirates, Alex Kampouris of the Reds and Lou Chiozza of the Phillies.

The Forest teams head hardin co. league. Boys Hold Record of Eight Wins in Nine Games; Girls Win Seven.

Boys and girls basketball teams of Forest High school hold first place in their respective divisions of the Hardin county league race, according to standings released this morning by league officials of that county.

The boys' squad has a record of eight victories in nine games, followed by the Dolu cagers, who have registered seven wins in eight contests. The Forest girls team has won seven of nine starts and the second place Alger team has won six and lost two.

Results of games played in the boys' division last Tuesday night were, Forest 26, Alger 18; Ridge-way 27, Roundhead 22; Dola 27, Dunkirk 18. Results of girls' games played the same night were, Alger 20, Forest 18; Ridge-way 18, Roundhead 12; Dunkirk 21, Dola 20.

League games to be played tonight are Dolu at Ridge-way, Dunkirk at Roundhead and Mt. Victory at Alger. Dolu will play at Mt. Victory and Ridge-way at Forest, in games booked for Wednesday, Feb. 6.

Complete league standing of the Hardin county teams follows:

Forest 8-1, Alger 7-2, Ridge-way 7-2, Roundhead 6-3, Dola 6-3, Dunkirk 5-4.

Three 'Pecks' Of Baseball

The baseball family of Peckin-paugh they might be called, with J. B. Peckinpaugh, center, 76, emulating his famous son Roger, right, former manager of the Cleveland Indians, by playing shortstop with team composed of older at St. Petersburg, Fla., and Roger Jr., left, who starred in college baseball and is possibly for big leagues.

Masked Terror, Bozell On Monday Wrestle Program

Two bouts that hold promise of being top notch wrestling encounters are booked for the Shovel gymnasium next Monday night when the grapplers renew activity after a week's layoff because of cold weather.

The Masked Terror and Paul Bozell are matched to tangle in one of the featured performances and Teddy Walters and Tony Peckinpaugh will meet in the second main bout. To complete the program a 30-minute preliminary match has been arranged.

The Terror-Bozell match is of more than ordinary importance because of the fact that the winner will receive the privilege of meeting the well-known light-heavyweight champion of the world, Leroy McEltrick, in a headliner the following week.

Fans have often seen the mysterious Terror in action here and his match next week, which will bring him to the height of a stormy career, should attract wide attention. His home, equally as mysterious as his identity, and his little to enthrall those who have seen him in action. A wrestler of unusual strength and courage, he should be able to hand back with interest any rough blows tough boy Bozell wishes to give out.

In one of his most recent matches here, the Terror slambang his way to a quick victory over the superb George Sauers, taking two straight falls after losing the first round. Apparently aroused by the fact that Sauers' chin-look tied him up during the first fall, the Terror became virtually a marked man as he almost annihilated his opponent in the two succeeding rounds.

Oklahoma's Paul Bozell, built on the lines of a super draught, handles himself well as fans have discovered by his previous matches here. Paul seemingly enjoys rough exchanges and the match with the Terror should present him with an opportunity to really turn on the heat.

Bozell's rough and ready style of scrapping should make the match an outstanding feature of Monday's card. With a chance at the title going to the winner, both men are expected to make every effort to emerge victorious. Both fighters have considerable mat experience and would welcome an opportunity to meet McEltrick in a championship battle.

The Peckinpaugh-Walters match will give fans a good display of tangleing. Detroit's Peckinpaugh, younger in age but a veteran in experience, has scored a number of decisive victories since he first came to the Shovel gym several months ago. Walters, a native of Gallup, New Mexico, probably will demonstrate a series of new tricks for Tony's benefit. Fans here know both men and enjoy seeing them in action.

BISHOPS DEFEAT B-W IN FINAL QUARTER OF ROUGH CONTEST 32-31

Two Players Banished from Game After Second Period Fist Fight.

Ohio Wesleyan held its second victory over Baldwin-Wallace today, winning 32 to 31 at Delaware, in the final two seconds on a free throw by Spark.

Baldwin-Wallace, Ohio conference champion, held a 26 to 23 lead in the second half with eight minutes to go, but a barrage of baskets put the bishops, Buckeye Conference champs, ahead. Davidson, substitute B-W center, fouled Spark once and Spark missed the throw. Davidson fouled him again and he made it.

The game was rough throughout, with 32 personal fouls called. A fist fight between Zak of Wesleyan and Ikeer of B-W, resulted in banishment for both men in the second period. The Bees were ahead, 21 to 18, at the half.

Cincinnati's basketball team was unable to stage off a late rally by the Goodyear regulars and the latter team took the decision, 41 to 32, at Akron. Cincinnati took an early lead, lost it and then went ahead briefly in the second half 21 to 20.

At Westerville Otterbarn trounced Wilmington, 53 to 33, despite the efforts of Lucas, Wilmington star, who collected 16 points in the second half.

"Big Bill" Tilden and a division of his professional tennis troupe will play in a number of Ohio cities during their current national tour. One of the first Ohio cities to get a definite booking date was Youngstown where the net stars will appear Feb. 7. Besides Tilden the troupe includes Bruce Harrier, Ethel Arnold, heroine of the last Wightman cup matches, and Jane Sharp, national women's indoor titlist.

An Ohio pair may form a "father and son" combination in minor league baseball this coming season. Bill Southworth Jr. of Columbus, has signed a contract with the St. Louis Cardinals and will attempt to win a place on the Ash-ville N. C. team in the Piedmont league that is managed by his father.

A PRIZE for every place winner. That is the motto of the German Olympic committee. Contestants who don't win medals at Berlin next summer will receive potted oak plants as souvenirs. The plants, now growing in a Berlin nursery, will be packed as recipients may take them home without danger of damage.
